

We wish a Happy New Year and are looking forward to working with you again this year.

In light of the emergency declaration by Prime Minister Suga on January 7, TIJ Tokyo Institute of Japanese has decided to take the following measures.

①Classes

•International student classes:

Classes will be held in classrooms three days a week and online classes two days a week.

Duration: From January 12 until the emergency declaration is lifted

•Saturday class

Classes will be held in the classroom, but students can also participate online if they wish.

•Japanese Language Teaching Practice Course will not be held until the state of emergency is lifted.

② Office Support

The office staff will work from home in shifts. If you would like to visit us, please send us an email beforehand.

The office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. as usual.

③About students in need

The TIJ Student Fund will support students who are in need, such as those who have reduced their part-time jobs due to the spread of the new coronavirus infection, by providing a consultation service and, if necessary, the TIJ Student Fund will support.

TIJ Tokyo Japanese Language Institute

Principal Sayuri Ichikawa